WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

Statement for Unintentionally Delayed Payment of Maintenance Fee

Dear Sir:

I have lost communication to my patent attorney Jian liu since 2006, (he was abroad these years), for this reason, I didn't know that my patent has been expired for delayed payment of maintenance fee until Aug.12, 2010 . Three days ago, my friend asked something about my patent, so I searched some information by the web of the United States Patent and Trademark office, to my surprise I found that my patent has been expired for delayed payment of maintenance fee . However, I offer the petition by fax immediately.

I wish that you will accept my petition for unintentionally delayed payment of maintenance fee. Thank you.

Announcement:

Following facsimiles (dated Aug.15,2010, total 7 pages) are assigned to substitute the facsimiles which yesterday sent(dated Aug.14,2010, also total 7 pages).

The expiration date of my credit card was wrongly typed as "03/2010" in the file of Credit Card Form yesterday, in fact, the correct expiration date is "03/2013", other also had several slightly wrong.

Please replace facsimiles yesterday sent with the following correct facsimiles.
